

Anthropologist

Be part of a dynamic and committed organisation that advances the native title aspirations of Traditional Owners across Cape York Peninsula.

Cape York Land Council (CYLC) is the Native Title Representative Body (NTRB) for the Cape York Peninsula region. We have a proud and proven track record of successful Native Title determinations and Aboriginal Freehold land tenure outcomes for Aboriginal people and remain committed to the reassertion of native title and statutory title rights on the land and in the sea.

CYLC offers a diverse range of cultural experiences working closely with different Traditional Owner groups across Cape York Peninsula. Our staff travel extensively across Cape York Peninsula and meet regularly with Traditional Owners to better understand the issues affecting them and country and implement the required strategy to effect long term and positive change.

Cape York Land Council is seeking applications for the role of Anthropologist. Candidates must have tertiary qualifications and previous experience working in the Anthropology field and have an interest in work as part of a team committed to the empowerment of Aboriginal people from the Cape York region.

This is a full time and permanent opportunity with a competitive remuneration package on offer, dependent on experience, is on offer.

If you are interested in this highly rewarding and challenging opportunity please submit your CV via email to: recruitment@cylc.org.au
